FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

David Boggs of ACRO Global named Allied Member of the Year by Maine Innkeepers

November 1, 2010

ACRO Global President/CEO David Boggs has been named Allied Member of the Year by the Maine Innkeepers Association. Boggs will receive the award at the Association's Awards Night Dinner at its Annual Meeting on November 9 in Ogunquit.

"We're honored to receive this award," Boggs said. "Greg Dugal and the Maine Innkeepers Association do a great job for the Maine lodging industry, and we're happy to have been able to make a contribution."

For 89 years, the Maine Innkeepers Association has improved, promoted and protected the welfare of the lodging industry in Maine through communication, education, promotion and involvement in governmental affairs,

ACRO Global - an interactive advertising agency with offices in Boothbay Harbor, Boston and Galway City, Ireland - provides research, advertising and marketing services to tourism businesses and organizations on six continents.
