

ACRO Global Named “Best of the Web” by Maine Tourism Association

May 13, 2005

The Maine Tourism Association has announced that interactive marketing agency ACRO Global of Richmond and Boothbay Harbor, Maine will be the recipient of their Best of the Web Award for 2005.

ACRO Global President/CEO David Boggs will accept the award at the Tourism Association’s 84th Annual Meeting, to be held on May 18 at the Samoset Resort in Rockport, Maine.

“We’re honored and extremely pleased to have been selected to receive this award,” Boggs said. “People in the Maine tourism industry are great to work with, and we’re glad to be seen as helpful.”

The Maine Tourism Association, with 1,700 members, is the State’s oldest and largest tourism organization.

ACRO Global is one of only a small number of interactive agencies worldwide concentrating on the travel, tourism and hospitality markets. Specializing in online international tourism marketing - and with partners in the UK, Ireland, Germany and Canada - ACRO works with tourist boards, lodging associations, hotels, tour operators and other tourism-related organizations in North America and Europe.
